

We now own Sorenson VP-100 and it is a unique way of using this type of device to improve our communications. It saves our time and gives us more efficiently to correspond through videophone sign language. It has become an important part in our daily lives to be able to communicate efficiently with hearing people through VP-100. Please do not bar this device from us in the future. Thanks!